The above sum of one million ninety-one thousand sixty-three euros and eighty-three cents (€1,091,063.83) was paid into a special reserve: "Balance from conversion of Share capital into Euro", which was to be capitalized in a future increase of the said capital.

1. Net profits of the company shall be considered those deriving after deducting from the gross profits all expenditure, losses, depreciations provided for by law, as well as any other corporate encumbrance.
2. The net profits shall be distributed as follows:
 - (a) At least five percent (5%) of the net profits shall be deducted for the creation of a regular reserve fund. This retention shall cease to be mandatory, when such reserve fund reaches an amount equal to one third (1/3) of the share capital. If, however, the reserve fund is reduced, for any reason whatsoever, the deduction shall be resumed until the same amount has been reached.
 - (b) The amount distributed to the shareholders as dividend cannot be less than 35% of the net profits of the company. By resolution of the General Meeting adopted by increased quorum and majority, said amount can be reduced but cannot be less than ten percent (10%). Non distribution of the minimum dividend shall be allowed only by resolution adopted by the General Meeting by the increased quorum set out in article 24 of the Articles of Incorporation and by a majority of eighty percent (80%) of the capital represented at the General Meeting. Upon resolution of the General Meeting adopted pursuant to the provisions of articles 130 par. 3 and 132 par. 2 of L. 4548/2018, the balance of net profits, after deduction for the creation of a regular reserve fund and distribution of a first dividend, may be appropriated in whole or in part for the increase of the share capital through issuance of new shares at par value, to be distributed to the shareholders free of charge instead of an additional dividend. The distribution of other assets instead of cash is allowed under the above conditions only by the unanimous decision of all shareholders.

3. Any distribution to shareholders shall be subject to the provisions of articles 159 and 163 of L. 4548/2018, as applicable.

1. In the event of dissolution of the company for reasons other than bankruptcy, such dissolution shall be followed by the liquidation of the company. In the case of the first (a) and the fourth (d) section of par. 1 of article 32 hereof, the Board of Directors shall act as liquidator pending the appointment of liquidators by the General Meeting. In the case of the second (b) section of the same paragraph, the General Meeting shall, by virtue of the same resolution, appoint two (2) liquidators, who, during the period of liquidation, shall perform all the duties entrusted to the Board of Directors and related to the procedure and purpose of the liquidation, in accordance with the resolutions of the General Meeting. In the case of par. 2 of article 32 hereof, the liquidators are appointed by the court by virtue of the ruling declaring the dissolution of the company, otherwise the second section of the present paragraph shall apply.

2. The liquidators may be shareholders or not. One of the liquidators shall be representative of the minority.
3. The appointment of the liquidators shall be subject to the publication requirements of articles 12 and 13 in conjunction with article 168 of L. 4548/2018, as applicable, and shall ipso jure entail the termination of the powers of the members of the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, if this termination of powers puts at risk the interests of the company, the Board of Directors shall have the obligation vis-a-vis the company to continue with the company's management, until the liquidator assumes his duties.
4. On assuming their duties, the liquidators shall take an inventory of the assets and liabilities of the company and publish a liquidation opening balance sheet which shall not be subject to the approval of the General Meeting. In any case, the inventory shall have been completed within three (3) months as of the date of assuming their duties.
5. All the rights of the General Meeting of shareholders shall apply during the period of liquidation.

This applies in the event that the bankruptcy petition of the company was rejected due to insufficiency of debtor's assets to cover the expenses of the proceedings. In such case the court determines the way of appropriating any existing assets, preferably to pay employees' claims, attorney claims, and claims for insurance funds and taxes.
7. The members of the last Board of Directors shall be obliged to provide any information and, if requested, any reasonable assistance to the liquidator in order to conduct the liquidation more quickly and effectively. The interim financial statements shall be subject to publication. Moreover, the liquidators shall also prepare the financial statements for the completion of the liquidation, which shall be approved by the General Meeting and subject to publication. The General Meeting shall also decide on the approval of the overall work of the liquidators and on the discharge of the auditors.

9. The liquidation financial statements, as well as the final financial statements of the liquidation shall be subject to the publication requirements of articles 12 and 13 of L. 4548/2018, as applicable.
